

Tutoring

Does your student need extra help? We currently have ELA and Math tutoring available Monday through Friday (see schedule on right column). TRIO is here in our library on Thursdays from 2-4 starting on September 20th. Tutoring from TRIO is available for all students and all subjects. See below for more information about the program.

MJC Upward Bound - TRIO

The Upward Bound program is a pre-college program designed to provide rigorous academic instruction, tutoring and counseling for low income, disadvantage high school students, most of whom are the first of their families to consider post-secondary education.

Services and Activities include:

- Academic Advising
- Tutoring
- Saturday Academies
- College Tours
- Six-week Summer Academic Program

If you have more questions about the program please come by the Counseling Office.
