

JOHANSEN DAILY BULLETIN

JANUARY 24, 2022

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Do you need HELP in MATH? Come to math tutoring in room B209 today during 8th period.
- Our fast fact for today is...Did you know it takes a pretty penny for the U.S. government to mint a one-cent coin? In fact, it comes to 1.8 cents per penny—or nearly twice its face value.

COLLEGE AND CAREER

- If you would like to explore future aviation careers and tour the Modesto Airport, please see Ms. Keller in the career center to sign-up. There are limited spots available for this field trip which will take place on February 18th.

ATHLETICS

- Coming to the boys soccer senior night on Wednesday or to the girls soccer senior night next Monday? Buy your $7 bacon wrapped hotdog meal ticket from a HYLC member and support both HYLC and our soccer players.
- Are you interested in playing softball this year? There will be a mandatory meeting this Wednesday during lunch in H112. Be ready; our first practice will be Monday, 1/31 at 3:20.
- Join the swim team; all levels are welcome and no cuts will be made! Come out to the pool today to sign up.

CLUBS

- Attention FFA members—please remember to attend the meeting during lunch on Wednesday.
- The CSF application for 1st semester grades is now available in your Lunch course on Schoology. Submit your application by Feb. 1st. See Ms. Amador in H211 with questions.

SENIORS

- The senior trip deposit of $170 is due by February 1st, so don't delay! Remember only full busses will be booked, so the earlier you place your deposit, the better.

ONCE A VIKING, ALWAYS A VIKING.